Here is a brief excerpt from the book:

“Crazy Horse was born in 1840, in the Black Hills of South Dakota. He was a member of the Lakota Sioux tribe, and his name, Tashunka Witko, means "His Horse Is Crazy." Crazy Horse was a skilled warrior and a gifted leader. He fought bravely against the U.S. government in the Indian Wars of the 19th century. He was killed in 1877, at the age of 37, by U.S. soldiers.

Crazy Horse was a complex and enigmatic figure. He was a fierce warrior, but he was also a compassionate and caring man. He was a man of great vision, and he dreamed of a day when all Native Americans would be free and independent.

Crazy Horse's legacy lives on today. He is a symbol of resistance and resilience for Native Americans and for all people who fight for justice.”
